Lent

PRACTICING GENEROSITY

This series of Sunday talks for Lent is inspired by the zeal of the early Christian church as described in the book of Acts, looking at...

THE GENEROSITY OF JESUS

in spite of pain & suffering

THE GENEROSITY OF THE EARLY CHURCH

in spite of persecution

OUR OWN GENEROUS RESPONSE

in spite of ourselves

The first disciples were shaped by their profound encounters with Jesus. Those who had known Jesus face to face, and seen him crucified, resurrected and return to his Father's side in heaven.

Now, inspired by the Holy Spirit, their love for God meant they not only endured floggings, arrest, death threats and worse, but actively rejoiced because their suffering was a direct result of their devotion (Acts 5:41). So maybe our prayer this Lent is that we hear God's call to practical, sacrificial, even risky generosity in the name of Jesus.

GOFUNDME: FUNDRAISER!

So far we have a cast of around 40, multiple schools, churches and organisations involved as well as tech support, stewarding and more!

The whole budget for the play covers staging, PA equipment, publicity, props and costumes, assorted licences from the council, health and safety measures and even hiring a donkey!

If you can afford to give anything towards the play - sharing the real Easter story in West Cheltenham this March, please contribute via THIS LINK.

WE NEED STEWARDS!

The route is planned, rehearsals are well under way, the props and costumes are being made.

To deliver this amazing witness though, we need 30-40 stewards around the route to point people in the right direction and ensure everyone is kept safe.

If you don't fancy acting, but would love to be involved, this is the perfect way to do so!
You will only be needed for the dress rehearsal on the 24th March, and on the 29th for the play.

JOIN THE CROWD

Didn't want a main part? Then join the crowd!
There are a number of crowd scenes throughout the play, with everyone welcome - young or old!

Workshops for the crowd actors will be on 9th & 16th March. Contact Janice for info!
