Lent

PRACTISING GENEROSITY

This series of Sunday talks for Lent is inspired by the zeal of the early Christian church as described in the book of Acts, looking at...

THE GENEROSITY OF JESUS

in spite of pain & suffering

THE GENEROSITY OF THE EARLY CHURCH

in spite of persecution

OUR OWN GENEROUS RESPONSE

in spite of ourselves

The first disciples were shaped by their profound encounters with Jesus. Those who had known Jesus face to face, and seen him crucified, resurrected and return to his Father's side in heaven.

Now, inspired by the Holy Spirit, their love for God meant they not only endured floggings, arrest, death threats and worse, but actively rejoiced because their suffering was a direct result of their devotion (Acts 5:41). So maybe our prayer this Lent is that we hear God's call to practical, sacrificial, even risky generosity in the name of Jesus.

PRAYER DURING LENT

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer (Acts 2:42)

*Almighty God,
whose Son Jesus Christ fasted forty days in the wilderness,
and was tempted as we are, yet without sin:
give us grace to discipline ourselves in obedience to your Spirit;
and, as you know our weakness,
so may we know your power to save;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.*
